Re: CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

In connection with Colbeck Capital Management, LLC ("you" or "your") consideration of a possible transaction ("Transaction") with Hall Chadwick NSW (the "Company"), you have requested certain confidential and other information concerning the Company. Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc. ("Houlihan Lokey") is the financial adviser to the Company.

You agree to treat any information concerning the business of the Company, whether furnished to you on or after the date of this agreement, together with the portions of any analyses or other documents prepared by you or any of your affiliates, managed funds, limited partners and its and their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, advisers (including, but not limited to attorneys, accountants, consultants and financial advisors), subcontractors, potential financing sources and their respective representatives (such parties actually receiving Evaluation Material from you or at your direction collectively, "Representatives") which contain such information (collectively, "Evaluation Material"), in accordance with this agreement. The term "Evaluation Material" does not include information which (a) was already in your or your Representatives' possession prior to the time of disclosure to you by the Company or any of its representatives, provided that such information was not furnished to you or your Representatives by a source known by you or your Representatives to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with the Company, or otherwise prohibited from disclosing the information to you, (b) was or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by you or any of your Representatives in violation of this agreement, (c) is or becomes available to you or your Representatives on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Company or any of its representatives, provided that such source is not known by you or your Representatives to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with respect to such information, or (d) which was or is independently developed by you or your Representatives without use of the Evaluation Material.

The Evaluation Material will be used solely for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating, and/or consummating the Transaction between the Company and you, and will be kept confidential by you and your Representatives, except to the extent that disclosure (a) has been consented to in writing by the Company, or (b) is made to your Representatives who need to know such information for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating, and/or consummating the Transaction (it being understood that such Representatives shall be informed by you of the confidential nature of the Evaluation Material and shall be directed to comply with the confidentiality and use terms of this agreement). You shall be responsible for any disclosures in breach hereof by your Representatives except for any Representative that (i) enters into a separate agreement in a form similar to this agreement in substance for the benefit of the Company (ii) executes a separate confidentiality agreement with the Company relating to the Transaction.

In the event that you or any of your Representatives are requested or required by law, regulatory authority or other applicable judicial or governmental order, or otherwise are legally compelled (e.g., by deposition, interrogatory, request for documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any Evaluation Material, you will provide the Company with prompt notice (email being sufficient) of any such request or requirement to the extent legally permissible so that the Company may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy at its sole cost and expense, and/or waive compliance with the terms of this agreement. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained in a timely manner, or that the Company waives compliance with the terms hereof, you or the applicable Representative may disclose only that portion of the Evaluation Material which is legally required. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Evaluation Material may be disclosed, and no notice as referenced above shall be required, in connection with routine supervisory examinations by regulatory authorities with jurisdiction over you or your Representatives; provided that you or your Representatives, as applicable, inform any such authority of the confidential nature of such information and request confidential treatment of such information in accordance with such authority's policies and procedures.

In addition, without the prior written consent (email being sufficient) of the other party, neither the Company, you, nor any of your respective Representatives will disclose to any person (a) that the Evaluation Material has been made available to you or your Representatives, (b) that discussions are taking place concerning a Transaction, or (c) any terms or other facts with respect to the Transaction, including the status thereof.

It is understood and agreed that money damages may not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this agreement, and that the Company is entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for breach of this agreement but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to the Company.

Neither the Company nor any of its representatives shall be deemed to have made any representations or warranties as to the accuracy or completeness of the Evaluation Material. Only those representations or warranties which are made by the Company in a final definitive agreement regarding a Transaction, when, as and if executed, and subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be specified therein, will have any legal effect.

Promptly after being so requested in writing by the Company, except to the extent you are advised by legal counsel that complying with such request would be prohibited by law or regulatory authority, you will return or destroy, at your cost and at your option, all Evaluation Material. Upon the further written request by the Company, any destruction of materials shall be confirmed by you in writing (email being sufficient). Any Evaluation Material that cannot be returned or destroyed (such as oral Evaluation Material) shall remain confidential, subject to the terms of this agreement for the remaining term hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this agreement, you and your Representatives may each retain Evaluation Material: (a) stored in standard archival or computer back-up systems or retained pursuant to such person’s normal document retention practices, for litigation and regulatory purposes or to the extent required by law, and/or (b) pursuant to your or their professional accounting obligations or bona fide document retention policy requirements.

This agreement binds the parties only with respect to the matters expressly set forth herein. As such, unless and until a subsequent definitive written agreement regarding a Transaction between the Company and you has been executed, (a) neither the Company nor you will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever to negotiate or consummate a Transaction, and (b) you shall have no claim whatsoever against the Company or any of its directors, officers, employees, advisers, attorneys, accountants, consultants, subcontractors, affiliates, owners or representatives arising out of or relating to any Transaction or Evaluation Material.

All inquiries and other communications are to be made directly to Houlihan Lokey or employees or representatives of the Company specified by Houlihan Lokey unless otherwise designated by the Company. Accordingly, unless otherwise agreed to by the Company, you agree not to directly or indirectly contact or communicate with any executive or other employee of the Company concerning the Transaction, in each case except for contacts in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices, or to seek any information in connection therewith from such person, without the express written consent of Houlihan Lokey or the Company; provided, however, that nothing in this section will prevent you from conducting market diligence, which may include contact with customers and suppliers of the Company, to the extent you do not disclose that the Company is pursuing the Transaction or discusses Evaluation Material.

Additionally, you agree not to solicit for employment any of the Company's executive officers or senior management employees to whom you may be introduced as a result of your consideration of a Transaction for a period of one (1) year after the date of this agreement, provided that you shall not be restricted in soliciting any such employee who: (i) initiates discussions regarding employment without any direct solicitation from you, (ii) responds to any general solicitation for employees (including through the use of employment agencies) so long as the advertisement or agency search was not specifically directed at any such, employee or group of employees of the Company, or (iii) has been terminated by the Company.

This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to applicable principles of conflicts of law to the extent that the application of the laws of another jurisdiction would be required thereby. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto regarding the subject matter hereof. No amendments, changes or modifications may be made to this agreement without the express written consent of each of the parties hereto. This agreement will not be modified or amended by the terms of use or confidentiality or non-disclosure provisions of any electronic data room acknowledged in order to access such electronic data room, and no such terms of use or confidentiality or non-disclosure provisions will be considered binding on you or your Representatives. If any term or provision of this agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms and provisions of this agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated. No failure or delay in exercising any right hereunder or any partial exercise thereof shall operate as a waiver thereof or preclude any other or further exercise of any right hereunder.

This agreement and the obligations hereunder shall remain in effect for a period of one (1) year from the date hereof, upon which all obligations herein shall terminate in their entirety.

Please confirm that the foregoing is in accordance with your understanding by signing and returning to us a copy of this agreement.

Very truly yours,

Hall Chadwick NSW
